

Hi...I'm Judy Paulson, ggranddaughter of Catherine DeLong, (Peter, Peter, Arie "Ora" DeLange, Area, Jonas DeLong, Andrianus DeLanget, Franciscus Adrianus). While we won't be attending the DeLong reunion, I'd love to share information with all of you. Until recently I knew nothing of Catherine's life, so progress is being made.

Susan was born June 14, 1838 in Whitby, Ontario, Canada, and died Nov. 14, 1913 in Portland, Oregon. I don't have Peter and Susan's wedding date, but Peter was born Nov. 20, 1838 in Brooklin, Whitby Township, Ontario, Canada. These are the South Dakota DeLongs. Catherine died young with many little children, one being my grandfather, Fred Daugherty. I'd like to electronically send you what I have, and would also like to know if anyone has details about the two Peters. I've been told that the second Peter (Catherine's father) died in a blizzard in Delmont S.D. but have no proof. It's a mystery.

Letter by William Asa DeLong to his future wife Eva, during the American Civil War.

June 14, 1862 Troy, Dorrappin Co. Kansas

Dear Eva,

As I have a few spare moments, I thought I would commence a Letter to you as perhaps I might get a chance to finish it tomorrow sometime. It seems to take so long for a letter to come that I cannot wait for an answer. I want them to come Quicker and faster and more of them. It seems that the further that I am from you the more I want to see you.

It is morning now of a clear beautiful sunbathed day. Some of the men have gone to lunch and some of them are off in the country looking for Jayhawkers. An organized gang of them is known to infest this country. We have had an opportunity to get a few of them and we hope to get the rest before long. This is a splendid Country. I can look as far as the eye will reach and not see a tree, nothing but the borderless prairie meets the vision.

It seems a pity that such a country should be convulsed with civil war, but enough of this dearest friend. It makes my heart sad to think what our beloved country is doomed to and to think of the many hearts that are breaking beneath the blow. O Eva, it has been a long time since we saw each other. It has seemed almost an age since I parted from you. O that fateful night, it seemed as if my heart was breaking then. But, it is not best to despair the sun often shines brighter after a storm. The words of the plaintiff hymn are often wringing in my ear. When shall we meet again, meet never to sever.

I am going to Church this evening but it will be lonesome, as it will remind me of you and Home.
Good Bye, Write Soon.

From your ever faithful friend,

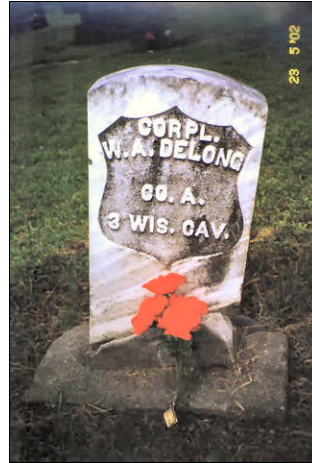

William A. DeLong

Lydia Banker, the last survivor of a family of sons and daughters born to Henry and Elenore Cook Banker, was born at the family home in Vernon county August 6, 1859, and was 87 years, 10 months and 17 days at the time of her death.

She came when a young woman with the family to this vicinity, they settled on a farm east of the village. For a number of years previous to her marriage to Joseph DeLong, of Brighton, Ontario, on June 30, 1895, she was employed in the homes and in the store of E. A. Freeman and G. W. Crandell.

Some Queries

Hi,
 My name is Rich Guffey. My father's family is from Milton Pennsylvania and my mother's family is from Akron, Ohio. Upon my mother's father early death she remarried a Walter DeLong. I am not sure of the capitals in the last name. We have no information on her step father except his name. We have our Guffey tree back to 1750 and cannot get very far back into my mothers family tree. Can you help with a Walter DeLong?. He had to be born at least in 1888 because my mother was born in 1906. That would put him at 18 years old at my mother's birth if he were her natural father. They lived in

Hi,
 My name is Carol (DeLong) Berry. My Gr-Gr-Gr-Grandfather was William DeLong, born 1799. He was born in Centre County, Pennsylvania. He moved with his family to Lancaster (Fairfield County), Ohio in the 1810's. We can't determine who his father was, because there were about 6 DeLong families there and they all had sons about the same age.

I've talked with Roy DeLong and have Volume 14 from John Baldwin. He's not sure who William's father was either.

Saw your notes on GenForum. Wondered???

My GG Grandfather, Mathias Waggoner, and his sister, Nancy Ann Waggoner both married DeLongs. Mathias m. Nancy Ellen DeLong and Jesse DeLong m. Nancy Ann. I show Solomon DeLong was the father of Jesse and Nancy Ellen and Aaron was Solomon's father.

My info includes very little prior to Solomon....no wife's name of Aaron or his overall family. I have Solomon m. Nancy Ann LeMasters, with no info on her family. Anything would be appreciated.

I did a lot of research on the Jeremiah DeLong family of Prince Edward County (Sophiasburg) for the Clair family in Utah. Their Great Grandfather Frank Clair, went to work in 1895 and never returned to his wife and 2 children. He did send them a letter a couple of months after saying he would be back, but that didn't happen. I would really like to try and see if any other DeLong knows anything about "Slippery" Frank DeLong? Clair? born 1857-1858 Prince Edward County. Mary has discovered a few more clues, which you can read by sending her an e-mail request.

I have been unable to connect Minnie Margaret DeLong, who was born on April 27, 1907, in Brantford, Brant County. Her father is William John DeLong, a carpenter, and her mother is Rubbinia? (can't read last name, but might be "White" or "Write"). They lived at 75 Ontario Street in Brantford. Which DeLong family is this?
